

Elena M. Sliepceвич Centennial Symposium on the Future of School Health

POSTER ABSTRACT SUBMISSION FORM

Principal Focus of Presentation (check up to 2 boxes)

- The Whole School, Whole Community, Whole Child (WSCC) framework
 - Developing a research agenda for school health education
 - Advancing the evidence base for best practices and outcomes in school health education
 - Strategies and tactics for improving school health education advocacy
 - School/community/private partnerships to advance school health education
 - Advancing leadership in school health education
 - Rebranding school health education
 - Defining the relationship of school health to public health
 - The future of professional preparation in school health
 - The realities of implementing the WSCC model, comprehensive K-12 school health education, and the school health education standards against a backdrop of legislative mandates and competing demands
 - Reducing health disparities and promoting health equity through school health education
 - Sensible solutions to end school violence / school shootings
 - International – global perspectives on key school health issues
 - Other
-

Title of Presentation

Full name, degree(s), job title, affiliation, postal address, and e-mail address of all persons involved in the paper

(Symposium presenter should have name appear boldfaced)

Insert descriptive abstract below (not to exceed 500 words) to include clear relevance to one or more of the symposium themes; POSTERS may be conceptual, philosophical, methodological, or empirical. Submit abstract form as an email attachment to Ms. Heather Goelz (heather.goelz@siu.edu) and Prof. Robert J. McDermott (robert.mcdermott@siu.edu) by March 4, 2019.
